NEWSFLASH

Dear Clients, Partners and Friends,

You might be aware that since a couple of days massive demonstrations and riots are ongoing all over Central and South Iraq. The KRG regions is not effected.

Particular in Baghdad, Basra, Nasiriya, Najaf, Kut, Amara and other larger cities demonstrators are on the street. Various clashes with the security authorities took place. Demonstrators looted public and governmental building, burned trucks and parked cars.

For security reasons the Iraqi government declared curfews. Internet and Mobile services are disrupted. The Airports of Baghdad is temporarily closed, Basra Airport as well as Umm Qasr Seaports are partly working. However, due to the disrupted Internet, delays in the operation occur.

With regard to the current situation, deliveries within Central and South Iraq are seriously disrupted. We stopped the service to certain destinations until further notice. If your deliveries are effected, we will contact you on a case-to-case basis.

Yours sincerely,

M.G. International Transports
